

Policy Leadership Award

---

This award is presented to an individual whose leadership in policy on rare diseases has made a significant contribution to the rare disease community.

Presented to: Fred Horne

Youth Leadership Award

---

This award is given to celebrate and recognize the contributions and achievements of young people in the rare disease community and impact in shaping the future.

Presented to: Jordan Janz

Scientific Leadership Award

---

This award is presented to a distinguished researcher whose career represents a unique blend of scientific excellence and support of the patient community.

Presented to: Kenneth R. Chapman

Patient Organization Award

---

This award is presented to a CORD Affiliate Member group making an outstanding contribution in patient support or advocacy.

Presented to: Cure SMA Canada

Corporate Award

---

This award is presented to a leading company who is dedicated and committed to developing and providing treatments to improve the lives of those with rare diseases.

Presented to: Innomar Strategies